

A photograph of four musicians dressed in traditional mariachi attire, including large black sombreros and black suits with white embroidery. They are wearing white skull face paint (calavera makeup). The musician on the far left is playing a violin, the second from the left is holding a guitarrón, the third is holding a guitarrón, and the musician on the far right is playing a red acoustic guitar. They are standing in a desert landscape with saguaro cacti and other desert vegetation in the background.

Custom Add-Ons

Every journey can be further elevated with bespoke touches. Our custom add-ons are designed to deepen the connection, luxury, and meaning of your itinerary — always in harmony with your rhythm.

Styling session

Get dressed in the spirit of the celebration — choose from curated outfits, accessories, or makeup looks rooted in tradition and expression.

Private altar photoshoot

Capture the beauty of your ofrenda and your presence in a soulful, candlelit session with a professional photographer.

Frida-inspired floral crown workshop

Craft your own iconic headpiece with local florists using marigolds and native blooms — perfect for the Día de los Muertos processions.

Personal ancestral tribute kit

Receive a custom kit to honour a loved one — including a candle, traditional paper cuttings, and a small frame for your altar.

Exclusive mezcal pairing dinner

Enjoy a chef-led tasting menu paired with boutique mezcals in a private garden setting in Oaxaca.

One-on-one art session with a local artisan

Create a personalised piece — from painted skulls to embroidered keepsakes — guided by a master craftsman.

Sound healing or temazcal ceremony

Cleanse, ground, and reflect with a guided ritual using ancient techniques by the ocean in Puerto Escondido.

Hand-carried folk art shopping tour

Discover the best hidden workshops and boutiques in Oaxaca and Mexico City, with the option to ship pieces home securely.